

July 25th 1623

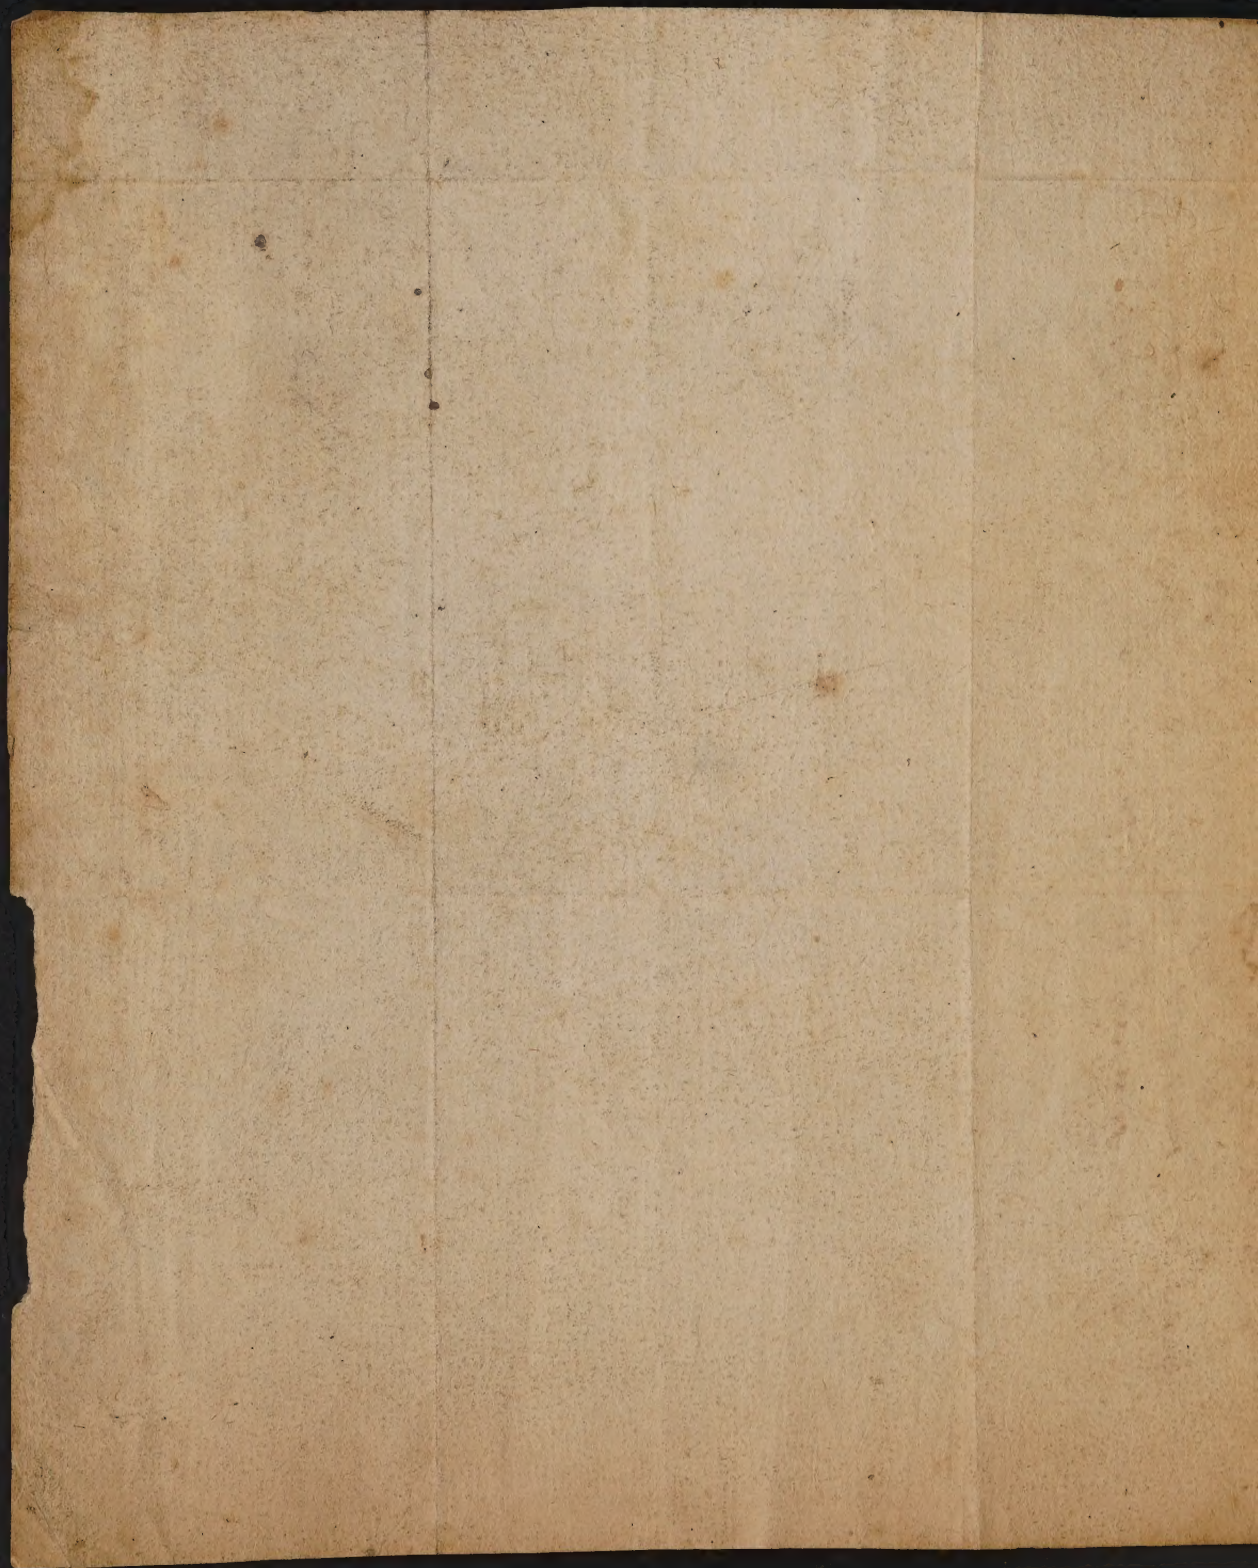

My dear friend, I hope the papers I sent by my Cousin arrived safe, and that they may be advantageous to you. I have met with 2 ~~new~~ very interesting books later by which I will send to you as soon as I can conveniently spare them.
My Neighbor Mayster Lee has finished building his house which is of a very faire constructio but hardly capacious ^{I think} enough for his large family. Over y dore he has caused to be cutt on a stone BARTHLOMEW: LEE: BVILDED: MEE:
IN: 1623.

Hoping this may meete you in good health as it leaves mee.

Your humble friend
and servant

Ben: Jonson

This letter of Ben: Jonson was given to me by George Staniel Esq: who is in possession of a fine portrait of "Mr Ben" Ed: Colburn Esq.

Mister John Malt

Esq. of Kent Street

London